William Hartman opened the public hearing at 9:35 a.m.

This public hearing was advertised in advance of the meeting in the Star newspaper and in accordance with statute.

The Commissioners would like to sell 208 East 7th Street in Auburn. The two required appraisals came in at $50,000 and $100,000. Consent must be obtained from both the Commissioners and the Council per statute since the Commissioners plan to sell the property for $75,000.

President Hartman asked the public if anyone cared to speak against the sale of the property. No members of the public commented. President Hartman asked the public if anyone cared to speak for the sale of the property. William Vanwye asked if the property is large enough to make it into a parking lot for employees. It is not large enough. It is 60' x 66'. The property is also not conducive for adding on to the 220 East 7th Street building. The Commissioners have a buyer for the property.

President Hartman closed the public hearing at 9:42 a.m.

Donald Grogg made the motion to sell the property at 208 East 7th Street, Auburn, to the firm that wants to buy it, and release it from the County. Jacqueline Rowan seconded, and all approved.

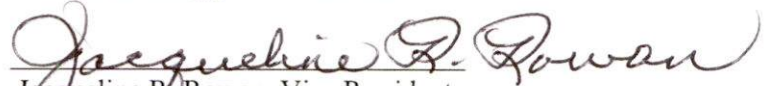

Council will make a motion regarding the sale when they reconvene in their regular meeting.

President Hartman wanted to add that the Highway Department was going to have a problem not counting PTO toward overtime, and for the sake of uniformity, the policy has been applied to all departments.
