

Notice of Data Incident

March 6th 2026 – On or around September 25, 2025, DeKalb County Board of County Commissioners (“DeKalb County”) became aware of unusual activity on our network. Upon discovery, we took immediate steps to secure the network and remediate the incident. We also notified law enforcement and third-party specialists were engaged to investigate. The investigation determined that certain information maintained on our network may have been copied by an unauthorized person between August 21, 2025, and September 25, 2025. The information varies by individual but may include an individual’s name in combination with one or more of the following: Social Security number, driver’s license number or identification card number, and/or financial account number.

We are also providing potentially impacted individuals with access to credit monitoring and identity protection services. If you have questions about this incident or would like to enroll in the credit monitoring and identity protection services, please call 1-844-953-2377 between the hours of 8 AM and 8 PM ET (excluding major U.S. holidays). You may also write to us at 100 S. Main Street, Auburn, Indiana 46706.

In general, we encourage potentially impacted individuals to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing credit reports/account statements and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, individuals are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228.

Individuals have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on a credit file at no cost. If individuals are a victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. As an alternative to a fraud alert, they have the right to place a credit freeze on a credit report. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved without consent. Pursuant to federal law, individuals cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Individuals can further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps to protect their personal information by contacting the credit reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), or their state Attorney General. The FTC also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. The FTC may be reached at 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement, the state Attorney General, and the FTC.
